The U.S. Department of Education International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE) office administers Title VI (domestic) and Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships program provides allocations of academic year and summer fellowships to students undergoing training in modern foreign languages and related area or international studies. Eligible students apply for fellowships directly to an institution that has received an allocation from the U.S. Department of Education.

The Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships program provides allocations of academic year and summer fellowships to students undergoing training in modern foreign languages and related area or international studies. Eligible students apply for fellowships
directly to an institution that has received an allocation from the U.S. Department of Education.

The National Resource Centers (NRC) program provides grants to establish, strengthen, and operate language and area or international studies centers that will be national resources for teaching any modern foreign language. Grants support: instruction in fields needed to provide full understanding of areas, regions or countries; research and training in international studies; work in the language aspects of professional and other fields of study; and instruction and research in international studies.

The U.S. Department of Education International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE) office administers Title VI (domestic) and Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships program provides allocations of academic year and summer fellowships to
students undergoing training in modern foreign languages and related area or international studies. Eligible students apply for fellowships
directly to an institution that has received an allocation from the U.S. Department of Education.

The U.S. Department of Education International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE) office administers Title VI (domestic) and Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships program provides allocations of academic year and summer fellowships to
students undergoing training in modern foreign languages and related area or international studies. Eligible students apply for fellowships
directly to an institution that has received an allocation from the U.S. Department of Education.

The National Resource Centers (NRC) program provides grants to establish, strengthen, and operate language and area or international studies centers that will be national resources for teaching any modern foreign language. Grants support: instruction in fields needed to provide full understanding of areas, regions or countries; research and training in international studies; work in the language aspects of professional and other fields of study; and instruction and research in international studies.

The U.S. Department of Education International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE) office administers Title VI (domestic) and Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships program provides allocations of academic year and summer fellowships to
students undergoing training in modern foreign languages and related area or international studies. Eligible students apply for fellowships
directly to an institution that has received an allocation from the U.S. Department of Education.

The National Resource Centers (NRC) program provides grants to establish, strengthen, and operate language and area or international studies centers that will be national resources for teaching any modern foreign language. Grants support: instruction in fields needed to provide full understanding of areas, regions or countries; research and training in international studies; work in the language aspects of professional and other fields of study; and instruction and research in international studies.

The U.S. Department of Education International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE) office administers Title VI (domestic) and Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships program provides allocations of academic year and summer fellowships to
students undergoing training in modern foreign languages and related area or international studies. Eligible students apply for fellowships
directly to an institution that has received an allocation from the U.S. Department of Education.

The National Resource Centers (NRC) program provides grants to establish, strengthen, and operate language and area or international studies centers that will be national resources for teaching any modern foreign language. Grants support: instruction in fields needed to provide full understanding of areas, regions or countries; research and training in international studies; work in the language aspects of professional and other fields of study; and instruction and research in international studies.

The U.S. Department of Education International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE) office administers Title VI (domestic) and Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships program provides allocations of academic year and summer fellowships to
students undergoing training in modern foreign languages and related area or international studies. Eligible students apply for fellowships
directly to an institution that has received an allocation from the U.S. Department of Education.

The National Resource Centers (NRC) program provides grants to establish, strengthen, and operate language and area or international studies centers that will be national resources for teaching any modern foreign language. Grants support: instruction in fields needed to provide full understanding of areas, regions or countries; research and training in international studies; work in the language aspects of professional and other fields of study; and instruction and research in international studies.

The U.S. Department of Education International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE) office administers Title VI (domestic) and Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships program provides allocations of academic year and summer fellowships to
students undergoing training in modern foreign languages and related area or international studies. Eligible students apply for fellowships
directly to an institution that has received an allocation from the U.S. Department of Education.

The National Resource Centers (NRC) program provides grants to establish, strengthen, and operate language and area or international studies centers that will be national resources for teaching any modern foreign language. Grants support: instruction in fields needed to provide full understanding of areas, regions or countries; research and training in international studies; work in the language aspects of professional and other fields of study; and instruction and research in international studies.

The U.S. Department of Education International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE) office administers Title VI (domestic) and Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships program provides allocations of academic year and summer fellowships to
students undergoing training in modern foreign languages and related area or international studies. Eligible students apply for fellowships
directly to an institution that has received an allocation from the U.S. Department of Education.

The National Resource Centers (NRC) program provides grants to establish, strengthen, and operate language and area or international studies centers that will be national resources for teaching any modern foreign language. Grants support: instruction in fields needed to provide full understanding of areas, regions or countries; research and training in international studies; work in the language aspects of professional and other fields of study; and instruction and research in international studies.

The U.S. Department of Education International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE) office administers Title VI (domestic) and Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships program provides allocations of academic year and summer fellowships to
students undergoing training in modern foreign languages and related area or international studies. Eligible students apply for fellowships
directly to an institution that has received an allocation from the U.S. Department of Education.

The National Resource Centers (NRC) program provides grants to establish, strengthen, and operate language and area or international studies centers that will be national resources for teaching any modern foreign language. Grants support: instruction in fields needed to provide full understanding of areas, regions or countries; research and training in international studies; work in the language aspects of professional and other fields of study; and instruction and research in international studies.

The U.S. Department of Education International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE) office administers Title VI (domestic) and Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships program provides allocations of academic year and summer fellowships to
students undergoing training in modern foreign languages and related area or international studies. Eligible students apply for fellowships
directly to an institution that has received an allocation from the U.S. Department of Education.

The National Resource Centers (NRC) program provides grants to establish, strengthen, and operate language and area or international studies centers that will be national resources for teaching any modern foreign language. Grants support: instruction in fields needed to provide full understanding of areas, regions or countries; research and training in international studies; work in the language aspects of professional and other fields of study; and instruction and research in international studies.

The U.S. Department of Education International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE) office administers Title VI (domestic) and Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships program provides allocations of academic year and summer fellowships to
students undergoing training in modern foreign languages and related area or international studies. Eligible students apply for fellowships
directly to an institution that has received an allocation from the U.S. Department of Education.

The National Resource Centers (NRC) program provides grants to establish, strengthen, and operate language and area or international studies centers that will be national resources for teaching any modern foreign language. Grants support: instruction in fields needed to provide full understanding of areas, regions or countries; research and training in international studies; work in the language aspects of professional and other fields of study; and instruction and research in international studies.

The U.S. Department of Education International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE) office administers Title VI (domestic) and Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships program provides allocations of academic year and summer fellowships to
students undergoing training in modern foreign languages and related area or international studies. Eligible students apply for fellowships
directly to an institution that has received an allocation from the U.S. Department of Education.

The National Resource Centers (NRC) program provides grants to establish, strengthen, and operate language and area or international studies centers that will be national resources for teaching any modern foreign language. Grants support: instruction in fields needed to provide full understanding of areas, regions or countries; research and training in international studies; work in the language aspects of professional and other fields of study; and instruction and research in international studies.